

CCM Community Impact Bond Fund

About the Fund

The CCM Community Impact Bond Fund (the Fund) is an investment grade, intermediate duration bond fund that seeks to preserve capital, deliver attractive risk-adjusted returns, provide a high level of current income, and serve as the ballast in a portfolio, all while investing in well-researched bonds that have direct and measurable positive societal impacts. The Fund's impact criteria primarily focus on the use of bond proceeds and documentation of their expected positive environmental and social outcomes, with most bonds qualifying under the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) of 1977. An additional offering is customization whereby shareholders meeting minimum requirements can tailor their capital to support specific geographies, impact themes, or impact initiatives, a benefit accompanied by customized impact reporting.

The Fund invests in securities that we consider to be fossil fuel free. We may invest in a bond whose use of proceeds will be used to finance activities or projects in clean and renewable energy, or other activities that may contribute to the transition to a more sustainable economy, even if the issuer's revenue or profits are partially derived from the fossil fuel sector.

"In 1869, the Illinois state legislature established the West Park Commission, which was responsible for three large parks and interlinking boulevards. Later that year, the commissioners named the southernmost park in honor of Stephen A. Douglas (1813-1861). Best remembered for his pre-Civil War presidential defeat by Abraham Lincoln despite superb oratorical skills, Douglas was a U.S. Senator who helped bring the Illinois Central Railroad to Chicago."
